STATE ENVIRONMENT
CONFERENCE UNDER WAY
IN HELENA

MISSOULA---

A conference entitled "A Montana Strategy for A Livable Environment" is being conducted through noon Thursday (May 23) in the State Capitol Building in Helena.

Conference chairman is C.W. Brinck, director of environmental sanitation for the State Department of Health. Assisting Brinck in developing the program were Dr. M.J. Nakamura, chairman of microbiology at the University of Montana, Missoula, and Dr. William G. Walter, microbiology professor at Montana State University, Bozeman.

Dr. Arnold W. Bolle, dean of the UM School of Forestry, will participate in a panel discussion at 9 a.m. Thursday entitled "Recreation Versus Industry for Montana."

Dr. Roy E. Huffman, vice president for research at MSU, will present a summary of the conference discussions at 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

Purpose of the three-day conference has been to establish contamination factors in the state's air, water and land and to set down guidelines for eliminating or reducing environmental factors which might be health hazards.
